Malala, a Brave Girl from Pakistan/Iqbal, a Brave Boy from Pakistan Jeanette Winter

Jeanette Winter presents the inspirational stories of Malala and Iqbal, two children from Pakistan who were not afraid and spoke out for human rights. In 1995, Iqbal took on the cause of child labor and in 2012, Malala, the future Nobel Peace Prize winner, defended girls' right to education. Both were shot, but the outcome for both was very different.
